DALLAS, Texas, Sept. 19.—The three round-the-world flyers completed today's leg of their globe-circling flight by landing at 4:24 p. m. after a late start from Muskogee, Okla., this afternoon.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 19.—The three round-the-world flyers hopped off at 12:26 p. m. today for Dallas, Texas, after having been delayed for almost four hours because of a heavy rainstorm.

Lieutenant G. A. McHenry and Corporal A. Hoyt of Brooks field, San Antonio, Texas, were slightly injured this afternoon at Hat Box field, when their airplane, which was one of an escort to the round-the-world flyers, fell from a distance of 100 feet. The plane was demolished.

World Flyers Due to Reach San Diego Monday

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 19.—The American round-the-world flyers will arrive at Rockwell field here next Monday afternoon from El Paso, and will hop off early the next morning for Clover field, according to telegram received here today from Lieutenant Lowell Smith, flight commander, by the Chamber of Commerce.

Following the receipt of Lieutenant Smith's telegram it was stated the flyers would probably land here about 3 o'clock.

To Welcome Son

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Smith, parents of Lieutenant Smith, living in Los Angeles, have been invited here to greet their son when he arrives, and it is expected they will accept the invitation.

An effort was on foot this afternoon to have Lieutenant Smith and the other flyers remain over here all of Tuesday and fly to Clover field on Wednesday.

Fifty army and navy airplanes from North Island will greet the flyers at the edge of Imperial valley, 100 miles east of here, and escort them to Rockwell field.

European Debtors Must Be Pressed, Asserts M'Cormick

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—None of the large European debtors of the United States has any immediate intention of liquidating their debts, Senator Medill McCormick, Republican of Illinois, who is just back from Europe, declared here today. McCormick favored aggressive action by the United States to collect the debts, but said the American people should wait for the execution of the Dawes plan before expecting the obligations to be paid.

Optimist Club First to Buy $1000 'Y' Room

The Optimist club of Glendale, meeting in the Alley Inn at noon today, voted unanimously to subscribe the $1000 for a room in the dormitory of the Y. M. C. A. building, following the presentation of the proposal made by the executive committee of the Y. campaign by Dr. P. C. Logan, chairman of the Big Brother committee, thus winning the honor of being the first local organization to subscribe this amount.

Vernon C. Tennis was appointed by Dr. H. R. Boyer, president, as chairman of a committee to plan for participation by the club in the bond parade of September 29. Dr. J. Harold Williams, of the Los Angeles Diagnostic Clinic of Psychiatry and Psychology, discussed the subject of juvenile delinquency, quoting figures to show the number of delinquent children in the state and also suggesting methods of combating this menace to the commonwealth. Today's program was provided by Paul Webb, and next week's will be furnished by Dr. H. J. Cooper. The first meeting in October will be an open business meeting, and the four following programs will be prepared by C. V. Gregory, V. C. Tennis, Dr. G. Kaemmerling and Dr. E. H. Armstrong. Peter Hanson, president of the Glendale Realty Board, delivered his winning oration in the "home town" contest.

RESERVISTS TO CRUISE

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—Naval reservists will leave Monday for the last cruise of the season, making a trip to Santa Cruz, it was announced here today.

SEWER BOND ISSUE SALE MONEY IS RECEIVED

Total of $680,657.44 in Checks Paid to City by Bank of Italy

The $652,000 block of sewer bonds recently purchased by the Bank of Italy, Los Angeles, was handed over yesterday afternoon to four officials of that bank, headed by E. W. Evers, and checks totaling $680,657.44 were tendered to J. C. Sherer, Glendale city treasurer, as payment for the bonds.

Of this sum, $27,118 was pre-empted and $1,539.44 was accrued interest from September 1 to 17, inclusive.

This is a net profit to the city of $41.59 on each $1000 bond, say city officials.

Makes Deposits
The $680,657.44 received by the city of Glendale from the sale of these bonds has been deposited by Mr. Sherer as follows:

Pacific Southwest Trust & Savings bank, Glendale avenue branch $100,000.
Security Trust & Savings bank, Glendale branch $100,000.
Bank of Italy, Los Angeles, $200,000.
Wishline National bank, Los Angeles $100,000.
Bank of America, Los Angeles $50,000.

To be deposited in other Glendale banks $30,657.44.

Makes Explanations
Under the law, the city is not permitted to deposit in any one bank an amount exceeding the necessary funds as they are allowed. The law also limits to 20 per cent the amount of municipal funds that may be deposited in any one bank.

As the city of Glendale has on deposit a total of approximately $1,000,000 at the present time, according to Mr. Sherer, it was necessary to place hundreds of thousands of dollars in Los Angeles depositories.

As a protection to the city, each bank receiving portions of this

Kiwanis Club Hears Talk Against Radicals

The undermining radical propaganda being disseminated in the country today and its baneful effect on the rising generation was the theme of a forceful address this noon by Dr. George Rice of the Better America federation, at the Kiwanis club luncheon, held at the Tuesday afternoon clubhouse, President A. L. Baird presiding.

Dr. Rice traced the history of Bolshevism from pre-Napoleonic times and displayed two shocking cartoons published in this country through the radical press, one a caricature of Jesus Christ.

William A. Horn spoke on behalf of the Y. M. C. A. drive, declaring that the eyes of all California are on Glendale and this city must not fail to subscribe the $275,000 necessary to erect the building. Dr. T. C. Young spoke urging Kiwanians to buy the $1 stickers admitting cars to Clover field to welcome the world flyers on their return.

BANDITS GET $30,000

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19.—While a deputy sheriff, revolver in hand, waited at the front door of the Wellston Trust Co. here today, to waylay six bandits who were robbing the place, the thieves seized between $25,000 and $30,000 cash and escaped by the back door. The robbers locked five employees in the cellar.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 19.—Brooklyn fans, in a fighting mood as their Dodgers went into a fight today with Pittsburgh for the right to remain in the national league race, hurled a shower of pop bottles at Empire Stadium when he ordered Burleigh Grimes, Brooklyn pitcher, off the field. The rain of bottles came in the first half of the fourth inning for Pittsburgh, leading 3 to 1. Grimes was shouting encouragement to his mates from the dugout and taunting the Pirates.

Elks In Convention Told American Ideals

CATALINA, Sept. 19.—The annual Elks' High Jinks in the amphitheater at 8 o'clock, and a goat barbecue held at midnight at the Catalina Country club marked the high lights of today's session of the California Elks' association tenth annual convention. Delegates from all parts of the state continued to arrive today. The patriotic address was delivered last night by Thomas Wood of Santa Monica, using for his subject, "American Ideals." The winner of the ritualistic contest, held last night, was to be decided by judges today. Election of officers and choice of the next convention place will take place tomorrow. Edgar P. Davis of Long Beach, and Frank B. Cryderman of San Pedro are being favored for the presidency.

VETERANS OF WORLD WAR READY TO ADJOURN

Sixth Annual Convention Closes Today; Delegates Honor John R. Quinn

By A. S. HALL
Of The Evening News Staff.
ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 19.—Meet the new commander of the American Legion. He's James Drain of Washington, D. C., and his election occurred today. Incidentally, he's a general.

The first twenty-five states polled went unanimously for him before Maryland, the twenty-sixth, cast six votes for him and two for General John R. McQuigg of Cleveland, Ohio.

Only three others were nominated—General J. J. Bullington of Illinois, whose name was soon withdrawn after the formality of the great wall. There are a number of foreign ships in the harbor and it is possible that one of the vessels menaced by the bomb may have been of American nationality.

Convention Closes
The sixth annual convention will be brought to a close today and the delegates from every state in the Union, from Mexico, Canada, Philippine Islands, Cuba, Hawaii, England, Australia and France began making preparations for starting their homeward journey.

John R. Quinn, of Delano, Cal., national commander of the American Legion, will wield his gavel, presented to him by the Cambridge, Mass., post, for the last time today, and the gavel, which was made from a portion of the famous Washington elm at Cambridge, will be taken back to California by Commander Quinn and presented to the state organization to be retained as a trophy of the convention.

California Active
When the session opened this morning, the California delegation, headed by Nathan F. Coombs of Napa, state commander, marched from the California section to the platform and assured Commander Quinn by addresses and songs, that California would welcome him back.

Make Desperate Effort To End Raging Fire

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 19.—Victory appeared within the grasp of the 2,000 fire fighters waging a desperate battle in the teeth of the conflagration raging in the Angeles National forest today, after a determined offensive was launched in an attempt to subdue the blaze within the next thirty-six hours. From all points along the 12-mile line, encouraging reports poured into the newly established base headquarters in Sierra Madre. Shrouded in, and partly protected by a heavy mist, the fire crews fought within the zone actually swept by gusts of flames, beating back the fire in a slow retreat. The principal danger point, in the head waters of Tujunga creek where the flames were threatening to ravish Tujunga canyon and start an advance aimed at the Pasadena watershed, was reported late today protected behind a wide clearing.

MUST STAND TRIAL

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Demure to the bribery indictments against Colonel Charles R. Forbes, former head of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau, and John W. Thompson, millionaire St. Louis contractor, were dismissed in federal court here today and the defendants ordered to stand trial. The date for the trial will be set at a hearing October 14.

Radio Cure For Divorce! Pa Stays Home With Ma! It's Lure For Jazz Girl, Too

By FRED J. WALKER
For International News Service.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—Have you a little radio in your home? If you have, the chances are almost two to one that your marriage barque will never be wrecked on the shoals of divorce.

Take the word of the "great reconciler," otherwise known as Superior Judge Thomas Graham, for it.

Judge Graham, whose more than twenty years' experience in handling divorce problems has made him known as an authority, was emphatic in stating today that radio was science's greatest offering to a world suffering from the evils of divorce.

"The jazz girl we've been hearing so much of nowadays is merely a girl who wants to dance. She likes good music and wants to enjoy a dance now and then. When her husband comes home too tired to change his clothes and take her out, she finds ways of getting her entertainment without him.

"Now, the radio family, and there are millions of them, knows little of such situations. Papa comes home, tunes in on some good hotel orchestra, and the first thing you know Mr. and Mrs. Fan are dancing the latest steps without having to go downtown and spend a lot of money.

"The same holds true," Judge Graham continued, "for that other type that contributed so many divorces to the calendar—the restless husband.

"He was the man who rushed from dinner to his club, or upon other occasions, to a game of pool with the boys on the corner. Now he stays home, and everyone's satisfied."

Chinese Drop Bomb Between Two Foreign Warships; Great Battle Close To Shanghai

SHANGHAI, Sept. 19.—After an all day attack Kiangsu forces are reported to have broken the Chekiang line between Kating and Huan Tu and to have advanced to within a mile of Nanjing. They are now believed moving rapidly toward Shanghai. The sound of big guns firing at half minute intervals, has been almost continuous and the steady drum of machine gun fire is audible tonight within the borders of the foreign settlements. To guard against the entrance of troops, French sailors are guarding the entrances to the foreign settlements barricading the roads with sand bags and barbed wire.

Heavy Sale of Bonds, Off Market for Oils

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—Heavy selling of bonds and an off market in the oils featured the morning's trade on the Los Angeles Stock and Bond Exchange today. Among the issues selling in the bond list were 21,000 Los Angeles Gas and Electric, 12,000 Miller & Lux and 27,400 Edison.

Edison common was up a bit at $98.62½ and 7 per cent sold firm at $104.50. Los Angeles Investment sold at $3.63.

Julian common was off opening at $12 and dropping to $11.25. Preferred held better, opening low at $18.50 and receding ½. General Petroleum also was off, selling at $40.12½. Union Associates likewise dropped, from $58 to $57.75 and Standard of California sold $57 and $56.87½. U. S. Royalties sold at $5.62½.

In the mines Oatman United was a heavy seller at 7, Oatman Gold at 2 and United Eastern at 37.

SHIPPING TO MEXICO

SAN PEDRO, Sept. 19.—Indications that shipping to Mexican ports is shaking out of its usual summer slump is seen at the harbor here in coastal assignments to Mexican ports. The steamer Washington sailed this week with 2000 tons of California merchandise. The steamer Bolivar is due Saturday and the Oaaca is in port with a fair sized cargo.

RADIO RESERVES ROOMS

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 19.—Wallace Beery and Frank Lloyd of Hollywood of film fame took occasion to use the radio to reserve rooms at a local hotel for the week-end. Robert McCabe, manager of the hostelry, nearly died of fright, it is said, when he heard business crashing through the ether and waiting out of the loud speaker in the lobby of his hotel.

BRINGS IN SHARKS

NEWPORT BEACH, Sept. 19.—Mute evidence that big game fishermen do not need to take journeys to tropical seas in search of fighting monsters, is the set of jawbones of a huge shark exhibited by the H. McMillan tackle store. The fish was hooked by Pomer Ward who was using live mackerel for bait, just off the municipal pier.

AUTO SALES GROW

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19.—The number of new automobile licenses issued here in the last month indicates that the retail sales of pleasure cars have far exceeded those of the previous month.

SMOKE CLOUD HIDES SUN; ASH FALLS ON HOMES

Hundreds of Passengers on Trains Witness Unusual Sight in California

REDDING, Cal., Sept. 19.—Mount Lassen, California's live volcano, is again in pronounced eruption.

It was observed with the break of dawn today, but the greatest force of the eruption probably was in the darkness of night.

The great ebullition of black smoke was obscured partially in a haze from the east as the sun rose.

A cloud of smoke was more heavily laden with ashes than is common with Lassen's eruptions. Ashes are reported to have fallen on the roofs and porches of the hotel Viola like a heavy frost. The eruption today was witnessed by hundreds of passengers on through trains between the northwest and California.

Lake Forms on Shasta Following Peak's Collapse

MCCLOUD, Cal., Sept. 19.—A lake was in the process of formation today high on Mount Shasta following the thunderous collapse of fifteen acres of one of the peaks of the great mountain which rears itself 14,000 feet into the air.

The collapse of the mountain peak and of the walls of Mud creek through which Shasta's melting glacier has been flowing, has served to create a natural dam behind which the glacial mud and melting snow are accumulating to form the new lake.

Fears are felt here and other mountain base towns that the barrier serving as a dam may go out after sufficient pressure has accumulated behind it, causing a disastrous flood.

The roar of the collapse of the mountain's peak was heard for miles and was accompanied by a towering column of volcano-like dust and ancient ashes which could be seen a distance of twenty-five miles.

Travel Is Safe
Emphatic denial was made today that travel on the Southern Pacific was in any way endangered by Mount Shasta's slight disintegration. Telegraphic inquiries have been received here, it was stated, as to whether travel were safe along the western base of the mountain, and local residents were invited to view this alarm with amusement.

"The cave-in continued all day long," Karl L. Rigor, who observed it at close range, said today. "It was at an elevation of between 7,000 and 8,000 feet and the cloud of dust thrown up could be seen over the top of the mountain more than a mile higher. This caused considerable apprehension on the other side where it had the appearance of smoke. It was feared there that a volcanic vent had opened up."

MAY CAUSE TROUBLE

"The slides consist mostly of the soft silts of Mud canyon and those yesterday were the most extensive since Shasta's glacier started its flow. If there is any quantity of water in the lake forming behind this new wall it may cause considerable trouble when it comes out. Based on past experience the rush may be expected over the week-end. The last big flow of the glacier was Sunday night when it again covered up the tracks of the McCloud railroad."

That's All

Always Opportunities
Taking Care of Boys
Think of Other Things
Plenty of Amusement

—By Gil A. Cowan—

Opportunities in America never cease. A Los Angeles bell boy is given a musical education by a group of business men who heard him sing yesterday. Yet their investment will pay well if he succeeds.

The same is true of those who put their dollars in a Y. M. C. A. in Glendale. Making the boys feel at home here means more homes. More homes means more building, more stores, more people and more homes.

Real estate and business men alike will support the Y. M. C. A. drive for $275,000. But the ones who can do the most will remind one of the man J. Herbert Smith, president of the Rotary club, described:

"That man gave of his service and funds because he wanted the world to be sorry when he was gone."

Rather peculiar psychology in this workaday world, yet worthy of emulation.

Ever feel grouchy? Few haven't, at some time or other. Best thing to do is to borrow others' troubles for a day. And soon the bright side of your own problems will be sighted.

Think of ball players having to play fifteen innings, as did Vernon and San Francisco yesterday. Good game, but hard work.

Think of New York stock exchange firm which had to close its doors when a member decamped. More tough luck.

Think of mill employees having to accept 10 per cent reduction in pay.

Then think of the beautiful weather, good hunting, plentiful fishing, out here in the west. Why, the sunshine is infectious.

Glendale is going to be provided plentifully with entertainment if plans materialize. One new film house is building, two more are planned; Murphy's have let a contract for a stock theatre in Casa Verdugo to house their popular tent show; the Dobinson players open October 1 at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse; and the Gateway theatre, in the southern section of the city, is attracting city-wide attendance by its pleasing programs. Present theatres and those projected will give Glendale 10,000 seats.

Return to Home Here
After Journey Abroad

A cruise of the Mediterranean was the great pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Davis of 212 North Orange street, who are home in Glendale after a seven months' absence. Sailing on the steamship Lapland, the Davises visited Algiers, the French and Italian Riviera, Athens, Greece, Palestine, Egypt, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, Belgium, Holland, France, England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales. They spent the most time in the British Isles, and if any part of their trip could be singled out as particularly enjoyable, it would be journeys in Italy. Upon returning to the United States, Mr. Davis visited his father in Portland, Maine. The trip to California was by way of the Canadian Rockies.

Peter Hanson, president of the Glendale Realty Board, last night was awarded the honor of representing Glendale in the "home town" contest at the annual convention of the California Real Estate Association at Pasadena next month.

The other contestants who entered were Gould H. Warren, whose oration ran that of Mr. Hanson a close second, and whose topic was also "My Home Town"; J. Warren Davis, who spoke on "The Wonder City of America"; and N. L. Duncan, whose "Glendale, the Unique City," sparked with humor all the way through.

The judges were J. C. Sherer, city treasurer; Richardson D.

War Mothers Call on Veterans In Hospital

Ex-service men who are patients at the Olive View sanitarium in San Fernando valley were cheered Wednesday afternoon by a group of members of the Glendale War Mothers' chapter, who motored out to take cake and grapes. Those in the party were Mesdames Anna J. Morgan, J. W. Cowlin, Bradish and W. W. Stevenson. The War Mothers are busy getting ready for the bazaar they will hold September 26 and 27 at 114 East Broadway.

HURT IN COLLISION

Don Albright and Tyson Dubel of Los Angeles were slightly injured last night when the automobile in which they were driving collided with a car driven by Gerald Van Winkle of 1517-B Rock Glen avenue. The accident occurred at 10:30 o'clock, at the corner of Verdugo road and Rock Glen avenue. Mr. Van Winkle states in a report filed at police headquarters that Albright and Dubel were driving without lights.

Bond Committee Will Name Precinct Workers

The executive committee of the Citizens' Bond committee is enlisting the assistance of a number of civic leaders in the work of organizing the precincts of the city in preparation for a whirlwind finish to the bond campaign that ends with the special election on September 30. A meeting will be held Monday night, September 22, at 7:30 o'clock, when the workers will be named for every precinct in the city to work for the passage of the bond issues. An appeal is also being made for help in getting out the campaign literature, women especially being sought for this branch of the work. Individuals and business firms are already sending in their names to the committee headed by G. O. Russell for the parade that is to be held Monday, September 29, to boost the bond issues, and Mr. Russell and his committee are anxious to see every Glendale firm represented in the line of march, as well as private citizens with their cars.

COMES TO GLENDALE

HEAVY CROPS CUT PRICE OF MELONS

Plenty In Market at 1 Cent Per Pound; Set Record In Consumption

The devotees of the luscious watermelon have had an opportunity to gratify their appetites to the full during the past few days, since the price of prime, first class melons dropped to 1 cent a pound.

With the tail end of the watermelon season just around the corner, many of them have been taking advantage of the chance offered them and have been setting a record for consumption that has soared to new high figures—or it did until the present cool spell struck Glendale.

Plenty of Melons

The drop in price, which has been in effect for almost the last two weeks, is caused, dealers declare, by the abundant crop of San Fernando valley melons and to the fact that the farmers are now clearing off their land in preparation for planting a new crop, so that as quickly as the melons ripen they are rushed to market and sold at prices that range all the way from $18 and $19 per ton for prime melons down to $10 per ton for the smaller sizes.

The demand for melons this year, according to W. Clar, manager of the Glendale Wholesale Fruit & Produce Co., 402 South Brand boulevard, has been 100 per cent lighter this year than last. During the recent warm weather melons sold briskly, but the change to cooler weather has largely lowered the demand.

TEAMS BUSY IN RAISING 'Y' FUND

Total $84,150 Subscriptions To Date; Statement From Campaign Director

Glendale never saw such team work as it is going to see before next Tuesday night, when the big push for a $275,000 Y. M. C. A. building comes to an end. The present status of the seven-day campaign effort is sufficiently serious to call for an extraordinary endeavor to bring this great civic enterprise to a successful and joyous conclusion.

Nearly 200 absolutely wide-awake business men of this charming metropolis, tucked away at the foot of the green Verdugo hills, have submitted themselves to the task of putting this thing over, and, unless their fellow-citizens fall them when approached for co-operation, the job will be done. Glendale has a great asset in men of this caliber, willing to devote sacrificially their time in co-operative effort to give Glendale one of its outstanding present-day needs—a full-fledged "Y" building to serve both boys and girls.

Just $84,150 of the original request for $275,000 was accounted for at the regular dinner rally held by the workers last evening at the eating headquarters in the Presbyterian church. A net gain of $14,935 was made yesterday. While this was less by nearly $5000 than reported in the previous twenty-four hours, it was not wholly unexpected, as it conformed to the usual campaign curve in daily production. It is expected, however, that the curve will begin an upward trend today. General Chairman George McDill says that the workers must bend

Daily Greeting To News Readers

True prayer is no earth-born thing. It is falling helpless at a Father's knee in answer to His call. It is the putting up of empty hands to receive what has been already promised. It is a poor, weak, trembling echo of divine love.
—W. H. G. Temple.

GLENDALE'S FUTURE

Great progress for Glendale and the entire valley is indicated by recent announcements of officials of the public service department and the Gas Co., placing the population of Glendale at 54,000 to 57,000, and showing that the entire San Fernando valley has made a gain in population of 33 per cent during the first eight months of 1924.

Some people who are pessimistically inclined, are asking where it will end. "So many people are coming, how are we going to take care of them, and how are they all going to make a living?" is the query. While every preparation should be made for a constantly increasing population, and more factories should be added to our large and growing industrial section, yet the matter of caring for a growing population, in a measure, takes care of itself. The more people there are, the more work is required to feed, clothe, educate, transport them and provide homes for them. A growing population means an expanding city and this in itself gives work to a great number of people.

But, Glendale should not be content to let this matter take care of itself entirely. The influx of population is undiminished, and it is better to have the new people provided for as soon as they arrive with homes, schools, public utilities, merchandising service and the like, rather than waiting until the people are here and demanding these things.

The 1920 census gave Glendale a population of less than 14,000, a gain of nearly 400 per cent since the 1910 census. The figures just issued show that the population has quadrupled in four years.

"Where will it end?" our pessimistic friend asks. It takes a man of vision to answer that question. Everything points to a great future for Glendale. We can help by being ready for the population as it comes.

LAW ENFORCEMENT

American law is described as a "preposterous system of criminal jurisdiction that gives crime every advantage over justice."

The crying need of the United States is fewer laws and better and a stricter enforcement of them. The disregard for law that is all too common is due to the fact that our laws are so laxly enforced. Bad laws and laws that are not enforced are much worse than none. There is an idea prevalent that laws can cure every evil. We have used too much initiative and energy and too little foresight in the matter of legislation.

Judge Talley of the Court of General Sessions in New York recently said to a new jurist:

"One of the things that you will come to learn is that you have come on the bench of the greatest criminal court in the world and the oldest court of any kind in the United States, at a time when this country is suffering under an indictment which proclaims it to be the most lawless on earth. You will find that the United States must plead guilty to that indictment. Most of the desperate criminals are mere boys. You will be heart broken at discovering that the vast majority of defendants are under 19 or 20 years old."

"A most terrible indictment," says the Literary Digest, "but not so terrible, perhaps, as the accusation that the American people are accepting the indictment almost with complacency, and that the average citizen moves not at all to remedy a situation which is threatening our national existence. The public apathy is said to be witnessed everywhere—in the jury room, in the lack of respect for law among the young, among the people in their private lives. And it is this, not the lax enforcement of the law, we are told, which explains why we lead the world in man-killing, in all the crimes of violence; why murder news appears almost as regularly as stock market quotations; why—and it is horribly significant—the United States government has had to contract for the building of 3000 specially designed armored cars for use in the mail service."

WHY THEY LOSE THEIR JOBS

Lack of a sense of responsibility, unwillingness to work hard, lack of thoroughness, false notions about salary and promotion, and lack of principle are the five chief reasons why ninety per cent of the boys and girls of the United States lose their first jobs, according to a report made to the Chicago Association of Commerce by A. D. White, statistician of Swift & Co.

Mr. White's report noted that ninety per cent of the boys and girls lose their first positions and shows that in nine cases out of ten the loss of the position can be traced to one of the five causes given.

"Lack of sense of responsibility is shown," he says, "by neglect of work, failure to put the most important things first, and the expression of a general 'I should worry' attitude."

"Unwillingness to work hard is shown by being late to work, stretching the lunch hour and stealing a few minutes at the end of the day, watching the clock and wasting time by social conversation and telephone calls in business hours."

"Lack of thoroughness is indicated most frequently by unwillingness to begin at the bottom and go through with the drudgery of mastering each step before going ahead."

"The real secret of promotion lies in constantly doing more than you are paid to do. Keep yourself underpaid. As soon as you are overpaid you are bound to go backwards."

"Lack of principle is shown by concealment of mistakes, untruthfulness and the constant making of excuses."

How much better if children could have these principles of a sense of responsibility, willingness to work, thoroughness and integrity grounded in them at home and at school. There can be no success without them, and the young man or woman who comes to his or her first job without them is headed for disaster.

MINOR SENTENCED TO DEATH

Newspapers recently published an item to the effect that club women of Chicago are interesting themselves in the case of Bernard Grant, a 19-year-old boy, who has been condemned to die for the murder of a patrolman. A petition for commutation of sentence will be presented to Governor Small as a result of the life sentence meted out to Loeb and Leopold.

Loeb and Leopold escaped the electric chair because they were minors, and there is no precedent of minors ever having been executed in the state of Illinois. Since young Grant is of the same age as the Franks murderers, it ought to be an easy task to have his sentence commuted to life imprisonment.

Knowing nothing of Grant, the environment in which he was reared, or the details of his crime, it is impossible to comment intelligently upon his case. It is possible that he killed the officer to save himself while committing burglary or some other crime. At any rate, the deed could not have been such as to merit a more severe punishment than that being meted out to Loeb and Leopold.

THOSE WHO LIVE IN GLASS HOUSES!

The Creed for Business Men

By DR. FRANK CRANE

At the meeting of the advertising men from all over the world, held some time ago in London, a "Personal Creed for Business Men" was adopted. It seemed to express the obligations to be assumed by all attending members of the various clubs.

It is not a bad sort of a creed to be adopted by business men everywhere. It is one indication that business is getting out of the region of mere sharp practice and is becoming a profession, in which those engaged in it are conscious of their duties and responsibilities and anxious to discharge them. The Association of Advertisers declared:

"Believing that the peace and happiness of mankind lie in some form of international concert, and that a great force in promoting human brotherhood is to be found in advertising, the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World acclaim and publish the following code of ethics for all those engaged in the business of advertising. We pledge ourselves:

"1. To dedicate our efforts to the cause of better business and social service.

"2. To seek the truth and to live it.

"3. To tell the advertising story simply and without exaggeration, and to avoid even the tendency to mislead.

"4. To refrain from unfair and competitive criticism.

"5. To promote better international understanding based upon a recognition of our mutual responsibilities and our interdependence.

"6. To conserve for ourselves and for posterity ideals of conduct and standards of advertising practice born of the belief that truthful advertising builds both character and good business."

This is in line with the general keynote of the convention, which was, "Truth in Advertising." It was based upon the "precipitation of the fact that no business can continue to thrive which is not based upon verity and that all shady dealing and unfairness is unprofitable in the long run, and that every principle of conduct, except honesty and uprightness, eventually defeats itself."

Horoscope

Venus in benefic aspect has power in the morning of this day, according to astrology, but later Mercury and Jupiter are adverse.

Women should seek to gain prominence under this rule, which, however, does not promise much aid from newspapers.

Reactionary influence where women are concerned may be strongly apparent at this time when they probably will discover that their political power is imaginary.

News of a nature discouraging to persons in power or to the established order of things may be prevalent at this time.

Mercury is in a place held to indicate much newspaper agitation regarding men in high place and suspicion of their motives will be freely expressed.

Jupiter is read as indicating great profits for bankers, but they are to take big risks before the new year.

Financial affairs will greatly concern many governments including Great Britain and the United States, immense expenditures are forecast.

Saturn continues to give good cheer to farmers, builders and brokers.

There is a sign read as indicating an increased popularity for community singing and this is but a symbol of some great movement in which the people will be concerned.

Again astrologers foretell the death of a famous American woman at a time when her services will be greatly in demand.

Railways may meet unusual difficulties in the next few weeks and they may find a diminution of receipts.

Persons whose birthdate it is should not speculate, but instead they should attend strictly to business affairs. The young will court and marry.

Children born on this day may be free with their money, but well-conducted and able to win success. These of Virgo prosper in business rather than in arts.

Today's Poem

A CONTEMPLATION UPON FLOWERS

Brave flowers—that I could gloat like you, And be as little vain!

You come abroad, and make a harmless show, And to your beds of earth again, You are not proud; you know your birth;

For your embroidered garments are from earth. You do obey your months and times, but I Would ever have it Spring; My fate would know no Winter, never die.

Nor think of such a thing, O that I could my bed of earth but view, And smile and look as cheerfully as you!

O teach me to see Death and not to fear, But rather to take true! How often have I seen you at a bier, And there look fresh and spruce!

You fragrant flowers! Then teach me, that my breath Like yours may sweeten and perfume my death.

—Henry King.

ONE PERFECT WOMAN

There was a good deal of excitement in the village when notices appeared announcing that the local minister would, that night, address a meeting on the subject of "The Perfect Woman—Where Is She?"

He had quite a good audience, and soon got warmed up to his subject.

"Now," he said, during the course of his address, I ask you, has anyone ever seen or heard of a perfect woman?"

Suddenly, from the back of the hall, rose a tall, gaunt, angular woman in rusty black. In a melancholy voice she said:

"Yes, sir, I have heard of the woman you mention."

"Who was it?" inquired the speaker.

"My husband's first wife," replied the gaunt one feelingly.

Several cases of death through starvation due to nervousness while taking food have been reported in England this year.

If You Came From Vermont THEN YOU KNOW THAT:

The name of the state comes from the Green mountains, which traverse it from north to south. It is 9564 square miles in area. The state is drained by Lake Champlain and the Connecticut river.

The surface is fertile, the best soil being on the western slope of the mountains near the border of Lake Champlain.

The climate is healthy, the temperature ranging from 20 below zero in winter to 90 in summer.

Farming and grazing are the chief occupations, all the agricultural staples being produced.

Vermont excels all other states in the yield of maple sugar. Wool and dairy products are large and excellent.

Cattle, sheep and horses are raised extensively. Vermont is an important manufacturing state. The Green mountains are heavily wooded, but afford excellent pasturage.

Large quantities of lumber are exported. The state contains extensive marble, granite and slate quarries.

Rutland is the largest marble center in the world and Barre the largest granite center.

Vermont was first settled by emigrants from Massachusetts, and joined the Union in 1791. Montpelier is the seat of government.

Burlington is the largest city.

their energies to push the production continuously upward through the remaining days of the campaign. If the goal is to be achieved the number of subscriptions and the character of contributions must be increased.

Interests Are Mutual
Campaign Director Mogge said this morning that there is naturally a group in every community who believe in the value of the Y. M. C. A. and who readily respond when called upon.

"The thing I am concerned about," said Mogge, "is that the great rank and file of substantial, conscientious, free and independent sovereign citizens of Glendale begin to realize that the privilege of participating in the Y. M. C. A. building movement is something everybody should be glad to do. Glendale interests are mutual. What benefits the community benefits all of the people to some extent. We want the folks about town who thus far have been occupying the positions of innocent bystanders to understand the need of a new and up-to-date Y. M. C. A. building in Glendale—a place to adequately provide preventive and constructive privileges for the 7000 boys and young men of 'Y' age now in Glendale. This rapidly expanding city needs to have some place under proper auspices where they can harmlessly and beneficially turn loose their juvenile exuberance. A Y. M. C. A. building is a safety zone for the young man's leisure. It is the most practical supplement of home, school and church, and should be regarded as an agency of co-operation with all three. The $275,000 invested in the Y. M. C. A. is the cheapest kind of social service. It is a necessary civic improvement, and Glendale must awake to this realization and get behind the campaign and help make it a complete success."

Newton Wears Crown
The "Live Y-ers," led by James A. Newton and R. Ernest Tucker, came through at the close of yesterday's work with a victorious report at the dinner rally. The electricians announced $5070, and Manager C. W. Ingledue of the "Bear Cats," the two-time winner of the previous days, had to relinquish possession of the "crown," which Manager Newton later wore jauntily in the parade to the clock. Another "Bear Cat" captain had the honor of posing the campaign clock and becoming custodian of the prized "spitzer-in-kum" cup until the next report, when Paul E. Stillman and Team 15 came across with a total of $1335 for the day. Captain Roy L. Kent of Team 14, who held the cup, made a graceful speech in presenting the trophy to Captain Stillman, and served notice it was only a temporary loan.

Team 11 of the "Live Y-ers," with Rev. C. A. Cole as captain, made the second best report of the evening, with $1230, while Team 4, T. A. Wright, captain, finished third, with $1130. Team 4 remains high team in aggregate production, with $6375. Team 11, Captain Roy L. Kent, is second in totals to date, with $6235, and Team 3 of the "Bear Cats," W. H. Barnes, captain, ranks third, with $5470. The divisional pennant winners announced were Captain Wright, Team 4, in the "Bear Cats"; Team 7, G. N. Hobson, captain, in the "Go-Getters"; Team 16, Ed N. Radke, captain, in the "TNT Gang," and Captain P. E. Stillman, Team 15, in the "Live Y-ers."

Dinner and Program
The women of the Seventh Day Adventist and Congregational churches served the dinner to the workers last evening, and the blessing was asked by Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of the Glendale Presbyterian church. Fred Shuck presided at the piano and Dr. John Anderson performed the necessary calisthenics in leading the singing. Prof. J. Arthur Myers and fifteen other musicians donated their services to furnish music for the parade to the clock. The following women served the dinner last evening: Julia Leland, Grace Franklin, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Whitlock, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Croft, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Nichol, Mrs. Mondon, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Cross, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Colson, Miss Bates, Bettie Warner, Miss Hooker, Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Schuyler, Mrs. Gage, Mrs. Haight, Mrs. Toal, Miss Bingham, Mrs. Cromer, Mrs. Schulte, Dorothy Shaw, Mrs. Payne, Mrs. Paine, Mrs. Budd, Miss Tyler and Mrs. Von Oven.

Organizations Get Chance To Share In Y.M.C.A. Work

The executive committee in charge of the Y. M. C. A. campaign last night discussed plans to secure donations of $1000 from various civic and social organizations and other groups looking toward what is practically an endowment of rooms in the dormitory of the proposed building. The plan is fully explained in the following communication which has been addressed to all local organizations:

"Every club, fraternal organization, union, lodge, church society and every other group is earnestly invited to make a contribution to the $275,000 building fund of the Glendale Y. M. C. A. We have a plan that makes it possible for your organization to share in this very worthy movement and perpetuate that gift in a most practical manner.

"There are to be approximately fifty dormitory rooms in the Glendale home of the Y. M. C. A. to care for young men who are away from home. We want to have these rooms provided by various

East Seems Anxious About Conditions Here

Horace E. Anderson, formerly an employee of The Glendale Evening News, writes an interesting letter of a trip he has been enjoying east as far as Chicago, on which he has noted the impressions of people of Southern California. He writes:

"From Salt Lake City and east, a great many people immediately ask about the alleged severe hard times that they believe are constantly existing in Southern California. They try their best to knock all they can. These knockers, though, have never been in the country they criticize. Eastern tourists, who visit California annually, almost always mention Glendale in their conversation before I mention I live there. They are all boosters for the 'Jewel City' and express a desire to reside there. The east is experiencing a very early fall and the weather has been so chilly here that a fire in the furnace has been necessary."

Mr. Anderson is now en route to California by motor and writes that he will be happy to be home again.

FIRST CONTRIBUTION

The first contribution to be made through the Chamber of Commerce to the Southern California appreciation fund for the world flyers was made by Dr. Paul Plowman, a newcomer to Glendale, who has taken up his residence at 226 South Louise street.

societies on the basis of $1000 per room, and the donor will have the privilege of naming the room by placing the name on a door-plate. "The organization whose name appears on the door may regard the young man who occupies that room as its perpetual guest and pleasant occasions may be planned—flowers and a card on his birthday, an invitation out to Thanksgiving dinner, invitations to homes and social events, etc.—that will mean much to a young fellow away from home. No one can estimate the value of such subscription and service.

"This feature is limited to the fifty dormitory rooms and open only to organized groups, or as memorial rooms. Selection of rooms for name plates will be made in the order that the pledges are filled. Remember, no cash is asked for—the pledges are payable in ten installments, six months apart, covering five years. On this basis almost every club can take one or more rooms.

"If your organization does not meet before September 23, when the campaign closes, will you take responsibility to get action in some way so that your club will not be left out of this splendid effort? Report your name and pledge direct to the campaign headquarters by phone, Glendale 130, or hand it in to one of the campaign workers. Who will be among the first?

"Fill out and send in the enclosed subscription card. We will appreciate your prompt co-operation in behalf of the boys and young men."

"Very respectfully yours for the committee,
"GEORGE D. McDILL,
"CHARLES H. TOLL,
"DAVID BLACK,

Public facilities in Glendale must keep up with the increased population.

Leaders of all Civic Organizations on your Bond Committee recommend ALL the above propositions as essential to Glendale's growth.

PROPOSITIONS 1 and 2

Will permit the building of Fire Stations in sections now far removed from protection. One section poorly protected is a menace to the whole city. Glendale is no longer a small town. A large city requires a modern Alarm System. A vote for these will increase the safety of the entire city, and mean a direct saving in reduced insurance rates.

The other propositions will be explained in detail from day to day.

The cost for all of the above issues will mean only a tax of 17 6-10 cents on each $100.00 assessed valuation.

SCHOOLS DISPLAY BIG ENROLLMENT

Total of 2259 Pupils at All City Educational Plants, States Superintendent

BURBANK, Sept. 19.—A total of 2259 pupils are enrolled to date this year at the grammar schools and high school of this city, it is announced, as compared with a total enrollment of 1660 pupils at this time last year, an increase of 599 pupils.

Superintendent L. F. Collins reports an enrollment on the first day of the new term, in the grammar grades of 1626 pupils, which had grown to a total of 1789 by the end of the first week.

The enrollment on the first day a year ago was 1280 pupils, and at the end of the first week, 1320. The first day of the 1921 term the enrollment was 842 pupils.

Increase Nears 100

At the high school, principal Moore reports an enrollment of 425 pupils on the opening day, which had grown to 470 at the beginning of the second week. Last year on the opening day the enrollment was 340, indicating almost 100 more on the opening day of this year. Hence it will be seen that the increase in the school enrollment contributes its unmistakable evidence of the rapid growth of the city.

Mr. Collins says every indication points to the necessity of another bond issue soon to erect more buildings to care for the steady influx of pupils.

More Instructors

The grammar grades start off with sixty teachers, a considerable increase over last year, and the high school starts off with twenty-nine instructors, an increase of five over last year.

Mrs. E. B. Lindesmith of South Alameda avenue entertained Mrs. Wm. McHain of Los Angeles and her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Korb of New York City, as recent dinner guests.

TUJUNGA NOTES

TUJUNGA, Sept. 19.—A picnic has been planned for September 28 in celebration of the forty-sixth anniversary of the first class held by Monsignor Tonello, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes chapel, Tujunga. The outing will be held at the Garden of the Moon park in Tujunga and a fund will be started at the same time to enable the local Catholics to enlarge the chapel on Manzanita drive and build a parish house.

The little chapel at Tujunga was established by Monsignor Tonello years ago after a local parish had been established and had held meetings at the home of Mrs. Forster on North Cedar street. The attendance has increased until the limited capacity of the chapel is overtaxed. Several musical artists have volunteered to contribute a program for the picnic and refreshments will be served.

Monsignor Tonello is one of less than forty in the world to bear the title, it having been bestowed upon him last June by the Pope of Rome in recognition of services rendered among the poor, mostly in Chicago, where the pastor worked for years among the squalid neighborhoods of the lower classes.

With its first summer season nearing an end, the Tujunga ice plant management finds that the capacity of the plant will have to be doubled to handle the trade by next summer. The plant was started in the spring and has supplied not only Tujunga and Sunland, but other communities in the Verdugo hills district.

The present capacity is fifteen tons daily and the management has purchased new machinery, which is already delivered, to double this output. Property adjoining the plant on Greeley street has been purchased and the work of enlarging the building will proceed during the next few months, to be ready for next summer.

"Constitution Week" now being observed throughout the United States will be observed by the Tujunga Kiwanis club with a special program of speaking on subjects pertaining to the constitution of the United States. Over 1200 Kiwanis clubs in the United States and Canada will hold special meetings for the same purpose during the week. The local club, as well as all others, is engaged in a campaign to induce all citizens to exercise their right of voting in the coming elections.

A. C. Sturges, proprietor of the Tujunga drug store and president of the local Kiwanis club, has installed a new iceless soda fountain in his Michigan avenue store. The new fixture is of the liquid carbonic type and practically doubles the capacity of the refreshment service. The refrigeration in the fountain is accomplished by the frigid air process which eliminates the necessity of ice.

Plans for a reception to teachers and a picnic in their honor were discussed at the first meeting of the Parent-Teacher association. Members of the executive committee are: Mesdames Lynch, Barnby, Sullivan, Carr, Reynolds, Messick, Holmes, Gilmer, Zachan, Eichenhofer, Huntington and Miss Buckner.

Deputy Fire Warden Leo Lang has been on duty at the fire front near Monrovia with a crew of local men. Two hurried trips have been made by Lang to his Tujunga office to look after local affairs, after which he returned to the danger zone to help direct the fire fighters.

Gas mains of the Southern California Gas Co. have been laid on Sunset boulevard, the principal Tujunga street. Work of installing the new pipe line system for domestic service is being rushed without abatement.

J. H. Ryan is building a home on Georgia lane and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wychoff are the parents of a son, born at

COLLEGE LEADER PLANS TRIP EAST

President of Occidental to Hold Conferences Over Segregation Project

EAGLE ROCK, Sept. 19.—President Remsen du Bois Bird of Occidental college, who leaves September 26 on a tour of eastern colleges, will be able to carry the news of an enrollment of 550 students, the largest in the history of the college.

Already the enrollment has reached 496, an increase over opening day last year of thirty-seven students, and additional enrollments are being recorded daily. Glendale, Pasadena and the Highland Park section of Los Angeles are reported to have the largest numbers of representatives.

Various Divisions
The complete enrollment to date is announced as follows:

The purpose of President Bird's eastern trip is to discuss with leading educators throughout the country the new expansion plan for the college, which includes segregation of the young men and women into separate branches in totally different locations, the boys' college to be founded at Santa Monica, on a large tract recently donated, and the girls' college to remain on the present site.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Schotz and Miss Gloria Schotz of 5170 Loleta avenue, together with their old friend, G. R. Crenshaw, of Berkeley, have returned from a vacation at Laguna beach, the ever changing scenery of which reminded them of their homeland, Eagle Rock.

AT LA CRESCENTA

LA CRESCENTA, Sept. 19.—Alterations are being made in the Easton and Perkins block in Verdugo City for the installing of an up-to-date lunch counter. Mrs. Cleve Tomerlin will lease the new stand. The stand will, it is expected, be ready for business the beginning of the week.

J. Barrows is building a garage on his Sycamore avenue property. Mr. Hobson is building an addition to his modern bungalow on East Sycamore street.

D. Duncan, the new fire chief, has arrived in La Crescenta Valley. While he has no engine house at present to take care of, arrangements are pending whereby the valley will soon have a fire station, though the site has not been picked out. At present Mr. Duncan will use the old truck.

A business meeting of the committees of the La Crescenta Valley Parent-Teachers' Association will be held on Tuesday at the home of the president, Mrs. C. W. Angier, on Alta street. As the secretary has left town and the vice-president and the corresponding secretary have resigned, it will be necessary to appoint other officers to take their places.

Mrs. A. F. Hopkins of Highway 118 has been removed to the home of her mother, Mrs. E. Wetmore, in Hollywood, where she will rest before entering the hospital for a major operation.

Mrs. Irene Rose of Piedmont street, who has been ill for a few days, is back again at her post in Mrs. Scanlon's store in Montrose. Arrangements have been made to place all Christian Science literature on the shelves of the La Crescenta branch of the Los Angeles County Free Library. Science and Health will be on the shelves as one of the permanent books of the institution.

the Tujunga Emergency hospital. Holy Communion will be celebrated next Sunday at the Tujunga Episcopal church. Rev. Robert Remison will officiate.

The Ladies' guild of the Episcopal church will hold their first meeting and an afternoon reception at the guild rooms October 3. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Beuchner have returned from a trip to San Diego.

J. W. Russell of the Russell Furniture company has moved from North Sunset boulevard to Michigan avenue, near his store. Rev. Edgar Pasko was presented with a purse of $50 for his services at the Tujunga Community church during the absence of Rev. Stotts, pastor, who recently returned from a month's vacation in the North.

Sermon subjects for next Sunday at the Community church are "Levitical and New Testament Holiness" for the morning service and "What Manner of Man Is This?" for the evening service.

Regular rehearsal of the Choral society of the church will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Members of the Ladies' Aid society of the Community church held an all-day work session today, assembling material for patchwork.

Miss Alice Smellie, deputy county registrar, is registering voters for the coming elections in November. Her office is at the rear of 238 South Sunset boulevard.

The Michigan State association has notified former Michigananders now living in the Verdugo hills that there will be a mammoth picnic and reunion of the tribe at Sycamore Grove, Los Angeles, next Saturday, September 20. The state register is located at Ninth and Spring streets, Los Angeles, in the Continental bank. All former residents of Michigan are invited to attend and join the association.

Chevrolet Dealer to Open New Salesroom

TUJUNGA, Sept. 19.—A store building at 131 West Michigan avenue, formerly occupied by the Patterson market, has been selected by H. N. Fowler of Verdugo City as a salesroom for his Tujunga branch of the Chevrolet automobile agency, which has headquarters at Verdugo City for the Verdugo hills district. The building will be remodeled, with large plate glass show windows in front and a service department at the rear. The establishment of this agency at Tujunga comes as a result of the favorable impression Mr. Fowler received during the Moon Festival when he had cars on display in Tujunga.

Peter Hanson Winner Of Home Town Contest

White, superintendent of schools; and Howard I. Wood, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, who announced the decision and praised all of the contestants. W. S. Kirk presided and the timekeepers were Mrs. Mabel L. Tight, Mrs. Sarah B. Stewart and E. P. Hayward.

During the program Mrs. E. E. Kent, assistant superintendent of music in the Glendale school, sang three songs, "Friend of Mine," "To You," and "Matilda," and Mrs. B. K. Smith of Los Angeles sang "Three," "Lassie of Mine," and "All for You."

George D. McDill, in an interval of the proceedings, voiced a plea for the support of the Y. M. C. A. drive, stressing the need of the proposed building not only for the boys and young men of the city but also for the older men.

Oration in Full

Mr. Hanson's prize-winning oration follows in full: "Beyond the Rockies stretched a green desert—shore-lined, poppy-strewn, mountain-fringed. The forty-niner blazed a trail across. Another trail led up the lowlands. The padre and the pioneer joined hands as the first realtors, and the padre-trod, sun-kissed desert bloomed into romantic statehood—California, a nation's honor state.

"In a corner of this sunny southland lies my city—nation-honored as 'The fastest growing city in America.' She needs no herald. Her fame has been proclaimed. Nature's handiwork has made her destiny secure. Tucked away among the orange groves, snuggled into the nooks of the 'Green Verdugo Hills,' beset with towering mountains, her superb, scenic setting challenges admiration, and the stranger comes in to abide.

"Sunshine and Health betoken God's favor. Above the fogs she revels in sunshine and health. For her background Big Bear and Arrowhead, Sequoia and Yosemite, hunters' paradise and playground of the world. Before her metropolitan Los Angeles, brimming with culture and art. At her feet the rich San Fernando with a twenty million dollar crop. Beflanked by her far-famed sister cities, Hollywood and Pasadena. Just beyond the grand old Pacific whose balmy breezes temper a perfect climate, while a network of pavements lends proximity to all.

"She has sponsored the call of the better city. Beautiful homes and tree-lined avenues, stately churches for her inspiration, unsurpassed school system, clubs, parks, and playgrounds, all befitting her civic ideals. Three hundred electric cars daily, while all north-bound trains pass through her gates. Efficient government under city manager; municipally owned light and water affording low taxes.

Great Prosperity

Her abounding resources compel attention. Liquid gold spouting from near-by derricks, bringing $260,000,000 a year. Golden fruit yielding $65,000,000. Touching elbows with the great motion picture industry. Twenty-five minutes from Los Angeles with her billion dollar industrial output and three hundred million dollar pay-roll. Natural gas and cheap hydro-electric power for her rapidly expanding factories, now numbering seventy. The faith and pep of 54,000 who believe in their city, with a kind word for every city.

"Sharing a common California heritage, her growth outranks them all. The last federal census showed a gain of 394 per cent, outstripping all other American cities. Her slogan, 'The fastest growing city in America,' was, therefore, bestowed by none other than Uncle Sam. From 2700 in 1910 to 13,000 in 1920, and now to 54,000 in 1924, an increase of 2000 per cent in fourteen years. Last year fifty-six miles of streets were paved and thirty-six miles of water mains laid. Bank clearings doubled, building permits trebled, assessed valuation quadrupled the last three years, and along with it all real estate values have kept pace and fortunes have been made.

"But the call of my city is above the dollar mark. Not in institutions and achievements alone, not from her scenery and surroundings, charming though they may be. The call of my city lies in the cherished ideals of an uncommon citizenship, imbued with lofty purposes and an inspiring love for

SAM SEELIG CO. PLAYS PART IN LOCAL DEVELOPMENT

Is Trail Blazer in "Buy at Home" Movement

The Sam Seelig Co. is one of the most well-known business competitors in a small community. They are invited into scores of towns because of the business activity stimulated by the establishment of one of their famous markets. People who have never realized the value of trading in their home town before will go down to Sam Seelig Co. for merchandise, and after trying the Seelig Market for culinary necessities they learn to drop into the local hardware store for that special hammer they need, or into the local dry-goods store for wearing apparel. They find that their own clothing merchants are up with the times, that most of them know the best Eastern markets, and "what is being worn this season." It becomes a habit for them to trade at home, even to visit the local dentists, the local doctors and the local stationer.—Eagle Rock Sentinel.

Rev. Ford Back From Ministers' Conference

Baptist ministers from churches included in the territory from San Diego to Bakersfield were in attendance at the prayer conference Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week at Camp Baldy, according to Rev. Ernest E. Ford, pastor of the Glendale church, who returned home Wednesday. There were 100 ministers in attendance. They were housed at the Camp Baldy hotel. Day conferences were held under the oak trees on the camp grounds. At night meetings were held in the hotel assembly room, where addresses were given by Dr. S. J. Schevington of Hollywood; Dr. James Whitcomb Brouger and Dr. J. A. Francis of Los Angeles. Mr. Ford states that the forest fires are far distant from Camp Baldy. However, he noticed ashes falling and dark clouds from the smoke.

Physical Examination Of High School Boys

Dr. A. L. Bryant will proceed at once to conduct physical examination of all boys at the Glendale Union High school, it was decided at last night's meeting of the high school board of education meeting, held at the Broadway High school, President Albert D. Pearce presiding. Irving H. Oliver, business manager of the Glendale Union High school, was authorized to call for bids for a board fence to surround the athletic field at the Broadway High school, so that a profit can be made from the athletic events staged on this field. It was voted that henceforth the pupils at the high school will wear regulation gymnasium suits. The board backed up the Student Body association's request for a "quick lunch" stand somewhere on the campus. Principal George U. Moyle of the Glendale Union High school was present at the meeting.

Ahlmann Drug Store's 1-Cent Sale Is Winner

The stoical old Indian on the American copper penny seemed to look more than optimistic today at the Ahlmann Drug store at 200 South Brand boulevard, for he is being featured today and tomorrow in an attractive "One Cent Sale." Business was more than brisk today at this popular business center, for an innovation was introduced in the way of penny sales. R. W. Ahlmann, proprietor, arranged the sale so that it is not necessary for a customer to buy two items alike of each article wanted. Any two articles in the same price class may be purchased, paying regular price for one and a penny for the second. The sale will continue tomorrow.

In carrying out his plans for the sale Mr. Ahlmann found occasion to speak of the pulling power of newspaper advertising as applied to the retail business. He is more than pleased with his advertisements in The Glendale Evening News. He says: "Many compliments have come to me for the typographical set-up of my ads in The Glendale Evening News, much of the credit for which belongs to the employees of The News office."

Kemper Campbell Back From Journey Abroad

Mr. and Mrs. Kemper Campbell have returned to Southern California. The Campbells, who were residents of Glendale for a number of years and now make their home in Hollywood, left early in July for London to attend the convention of the Bar association. Their little son and daughter spent the summer in Glendale at the home of Mrs. Campbell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David G. Hibben of 123 East Laurel street. After a few days' visit with their parents and relatives in Glendale the Campbells returned to their home in Hollywood. During their trip they toured Italy, France, Belgium and other parts of Europe.

At Sanitarium

Special Correspondence

Professor W. W. Ruble and Professor W. E. Howell returned this morning to the Pacific Union conference headquarters at 603 East Broadway, after a week spent at the biennial conference and camp meeting of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination at Phoenix, Ariz.

After looking over a few letters and attending to some accumulated business, they made a trip to the Glendale academy and later visited the Los Angeles academy at 3131 Pasadena avenue. Professor Ruble is the local educational secretary and Professor Howell is secretary of the educational department of the World conference.

J. E. Burden, general manager, was called to San Diego yesterday upon business connected with the Paradise Valley sanitarium, where he was manager before taking up work here.

Last night, about 10:30 o'clock, T. D. Dubel, age 25, and John Albright, age 27, both of Los Angeles, were driving in a Ford between Glendale and Burbank when they were run into by another car. The car they were riding in was overturned and both men were thrown violently to the sidewalk. Fortunately no serious injuries resulted, both receiving slight wounds and abrasions. They were taken down to the hospital, where their injuries were dressed by Dr. R. W. Maker. They were able to return to their homes, but will have to come back to the hospital for dressings for a time.

Dr. H. W. Vollmer gave an interesting and instructive talk in the Sanitarium parlor last night on the effect of tobacco and stimulants on the nervous system and the general health. He gave some striking illustrations of the lack of endurance and loss of strength found in those who indulge in these things. Today men of 50 years of age who have been temperate along these lines outdo in tests of strength and endurance men of 30 who smoke and drink and indulge in other stimulants, he said.

ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Anderson of 118 North Louise street celebrated their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary last night by being hosts at an informal social affair, enjoyed by their children and a group of friends. Musical numbers were given by Miss Helen Anderson, pianist, and Mrs. Henry L. Anderson, violinist.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram of 1063 Ellen avenue, Glendale, are the parents of a daughter, born this morning, Friday, September 19, 1924, at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital.

New Legion Chief

Last night and posted in the state headquarters at the Hotel Van Dyke, announced that Commander Quinn would probably make the journey to California with the delegation on their special train. Commander Quinn has made it known that he is anxious to get back to the Golden West after a year of strenuous duties leading the American Legion, and for the first time since before the World war, will devote his time to business. He will become an executive officer in the Seaboard National bank of Los Angeles.

Sightseeing Tour
Today at the convention is officially Minneapolis Day, and the citizens of that city, who honored the members of the American Legion at the first national convention, again played hosts to the former service men and women. Automobiles furnished by the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce carried the convention visitors across the river and took them for a sightseeing tour of the city. Open house will be maintained all day by the various clubs of Minneapolis, and an elaborate program of entertainment is planned for tonight.

Among the features planned for the visitors in Minneapolis today and tonight are pavement dances, which have become popular here during the convention, a sport program at Minneapolis' largest park this afternoon, and a vaudeville and boxing program tonight in the auditorium where the first American Legion convention was held.

GUESTS AT DINNER

H. C. Vandewater, building superintendent, and eight of his men, were entertained last night at dinner by T. W. Watts of the department, at his home, 1515 East Orange Grove avenue. The guests were: H. C. Vandewater, Andy Stevenson, D. Jones, J. M. Fallins, J. H. Wittmeyer, Jack Crannell, Merle Hodges, W. C. Murphy and J. M. Fife.

GUESTS OF CLUB

Misses Anna Venneman and Viola Smith were guests Wednesday night at the meeting of the Rodree club with Mrs. Ray Engle of 711 South Maryland avenue. Yellow and white were used in the appointments for the two-course luncheon. Cards were the diversion of the evening. Next week the club will meet with Mrs. McGowan.

DAILY MENU TOO SCANTY

SANTA ANA, Sept. 19.—Because food allotments by her husband were insufficient to sustain Mrs. Luella W. Koenig and three children, separate maintenance proceedings were recently filed in superior court here by the wife against George Koenig of La Habra. According to the charges Koenig daily provided his family of five with one loaf of bread, one can condensed milk and one-half pound sugar. Mrs. Koenig believes that separate maintenance is better than no maintenance.

BEATS COOK—HIS WIFE

FULLERTON, Sept. 19.—Because his wife failed to add the necessary salt, pepper, onions and garlic to his chili and beans, Jose Cordoza was being held in the city jail here, following an alleged beating of his wife Vincenc Cordoza. According to reports Cordoza beat and choked the woman when the frioles didn't suit his taste.

WHOOPING COUGH CURE?

LOMITA, Sept. 19.—Is it possible we have a new cure for whooping cough? According to P. E. Langford we have, but he was unable to convince Justice Hunter of Lomita that a quantity of liquor found in his home had been purchased for a baby ill with whooping cough. According to officers who made the raid, Mrs. Langford attempted to pour the liquor out of the window. Langford was given $350 or 350 days.

Receive Money for Sale of Sewer Bonds

large sum received from the Bank of Italy as the purchase price of the sewer bonds has placed with Mr. Sherer municipal, government or school district bonds totaling 10 per cent in excess of the respective deposits. The city is, therefore, amply secured, he states, even in the remote eventuality that all of these banks should fail.

Before the bonds were accepted by the officials from the Bank of Italy, each separate bond was checked to see that the interest coupons were correctly attached, and that they all bore the signatures of Mayor Spencer Robinson, J. C. Sherer, city treasurer, and the signatures and seal of A. J. Van Wie, city clerk.

May Call for Bids

It is expected that the City Council will, at the meeting of Thursday, September 25, authorize the city clerk to advertise for bids on all three sections of the $1,600,000 sewer that is to connect this city with the Los Angeles outfall sewer system. It is anticipated that separate bids will be called for on three or four types of construction.

The forthcoming sewer, engineering plans for which have been prepared by Burns, McDonnell & Smith, extends from Aviation drive, on the north, to Sixth and Utah street, Los Angeles, on the south, and is divided into three sections: the north or hillside section, the middle or river-bottom section, and the south or industrial district section.

Various Problems
Each section is understood to present its own engineering problems and the bids may be accepted by three different contracting firms, each a specialist in its own particular field.

Chester A. Smith, who represented Burns & McDonnell at the time this firm was retained by the city of Glendale to prepare plans for the sewer, and who worked in this city for weeks on the project, has recently been taken into active partnership in the firm, which accounts for his name appearing in connection with those of Messrs. Burns & McDonnell in the firm name.

well field, it was announced today.

Captain T. T. Cravens, commandant of the North Island air station, said he would send thirty-five planes to greet the globe belters and Major S. W. Fitzgerald, commandant of Rockwell field, said he would augment this number enough to bring the total up to fifty escort planes. Original plans were for a score of army planes to have met the flyers at Tucson, Ariz.

Ask Glendale to Give Flowers for World Flyers

George J. Lyons, chairman of the committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to secure flowers to be presented to the world flyers when they reach Santa Monica, asks that those who wish to donate flowers to the truck-load that Glendale has been asked to send notify him through the Chamber of Commerce, when he and his committee will arrange to collect the flowers on the day when they are to be sent to Clover Field. The Chamber of Commerce will notify the donors when the flowers are to be cut, so that they may retain their freshness when they are sent to Santa Monica, and it is suggested that the pampas grass, which is now coming on, can be used to advantage in furnishing the background for the blooms.

Mr. Lyons will select the other members of the committee by tomorrow, and those who desire to send flowers may reach Dr. Lyons through the Chamber of Commerce, phone Glendale 1262.

CALL SPECIAL MEETING

ANSWERS TO MOTHERS

Dear Doctor Peters—I have a small boy of four. His natural inclination, as of course any child's is, is to play with other children and I want him to do this. But the four youngsters who live near (they're here most of the time) are a problem. I do not want my boy to learn to be selfish. I do want him to have enough to eat. But I can't afford to feed five. And that's what I have to do. I don't allow anyone to feed my boy except myself for I want to know when, where and what he eats. But the mother of these children (and she isn't the only mother like that) doesn't care what or when I feed her children so long as they are fed.

"If I feed them, they bolt their portions and coax half of my boy's from him. If I bring him in and feed him at his table alone they wait outside and tease him for tidbits when he comes out. And then too, it seems as though I were teaching him to be rude and selfish when I let him eat while guests stay hungry. Yet, if I allow little picnics in the court, I must watch every movement for if I do not, my boy, who has been taught to eat slowly, will be just starting when the others have cleaned their dishes. I am not the only mother who has this sort of a problem.

"These neighbor children are all underweight and underheight. They have large amounts of meat and chicken, white bread and sugar, some milk, but very few vegetables and fruits. They have white bread and sugar often between meals. My boy is exactly normal height and weight for 5, although he is only 4. But he is thin. He plays outdoors all day, sleeps like the proverbial log at night but seems a little white in the mornings, though he jumps almost out of doors.—Mrs. J. C. K.

You are perfectly right in not allowing the neighbors to feed your boy and in teaching him to eat outside the home except, of course, when he has your permission. Normal children should not eat between meals, except for the one lunch, preferably fruit, in the afternoon. Food at a playmate's house always seems to taste better to the children and it is perfectly natural if they have not been taught better, to expect it. We must remember that children are little animals.

However, the fact that your neighbor's children have not been taught correctly does not mean that you must suffer for it. When it is time for your little boy's lunch, tell them that it is lunch time, to scamp for him to have their lunch and then come back later (if you want them to). Once in a while, you can have a little party lunch and supervise it. You will be doing a real missionary work in teaching the other children to eat slowly and to enjoy milk, vegetables and fruit, as you have taught your children to do.

You tell me you are feeding your boy five meals a day. That's too often. He should be on three meals a day, with a lunch at 4 o'clock of some fruit. The heaviest meal should be in the middle of the day. Your neighbor's children are getting altogether too much meat and white bread and sugar, and too little fruit and vegetables and probably too little milk. Their irregular eating and unbalanced diet undoubtedly account for their underweight and underheight.

White bread and sugar have good energy value and children need a great amount of energy food, of course; but it is best for them to get most of their energy needs in the foods that also contain mineral and vitamins; so whole wheat bread and butter with some dates or raisins would be better than the white bread and sugar.

You say your boy is just normal height and weight, but he is thin. There is no exact normal weight and height. There is an average height, depending upon racial and family characteristics, although these can be greatly modified by diet and other factors. The weights that are given on weight charts are average weights and the normal weight for any particular child may be 10 per cent above or perhaps 5 per cent below and still be normal. The weight in relation to height and age is better than the weight in relation to age alone.

You say your little boy, while he is normal height for 5 years of age, is thin. Looks as though you have to feed him a little more instead of less, or else have him play less strenuously. He should have little rest periods each day. Feed him less often and he will eat more at his meals. He should have a warm cereal for breakfast. We have a list of modern books (on feeding babies and children. Send a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request.

CHAPTER XVI.

"No, I don't," Dora answered, with unexpected serenity. "But I know this: I cannot keep up this pretense with Craig any longer. I must be free. That's all I propose to do now. What will follow I can't tell, of course."

"Konrad has told you that he loves you?" Hilary made herself ask, feeling old and inexperienced beside this poised child who was yet a wife of three years' standing, and who was so strangely sure of herself.

"That's what I wanted to tell you about," Dora said, her manner suddenly becoming less assured and more appealing. "I know he did last spring. I know he does now. But—but he's a great lion now, Sis. I almost never see him alone, and when I do—he's changed. Oh, not toward me," she hastened to interrupt herself. "I am still his 'golden butterfly,' he still hunts me out—everywhere—and you'd be proud of me, Sis. You don't know how hard I'd work, how I'd practice! I'd have an apartment here, either the one he has now, or a larger one—he'd refuse ourselves to everyone—except now and then a really big affair, or something we couldn't refuse—and we'd become known as the professional husband and wife who lived a dignified, ideal life, instead of rushing about with the fastest set in the city—"

Hilary was holding the slender, fragrant young creature close, with both hands laid lightly upon Dora's shoulders. Butterfly had never seemed more charmingly confiding, more sweet and loving than now.

But suddenly Hilary saw under the earnest, businesslike air the real Dora. She saw the selfishness, the blindness, the cruelty that were all so largely a question of mere youth and ignorance now, but for which many such younger creatures had paid at a bitter cost! So logical, so rational, so seemingly generous, was this enthusiastic plan; the world was full of pretty, passionate women with plans just like it!

"A person like Violet," Dora said, suddenly, with a little vicious emphasis on the name, "I would never have in my house!"

Hilary's grave, piercing half-smile deepened.

"What has Violet done that you would not have done?" she asked. "Violet?" Dora echoed—unpleasantly shocked. "Why, but she—but she—"

"Dearest, I want you to know what this means to me—that it's my life. I dream of it, I think of it all day and all night; I help me—nobody else can! Think of the places we would travel, Hilary, the great persons we would meet, and the wonderful music we'd make together! Why shouldn't I take my place as Sabine Charpentier's daughter—he says I shall! In one of the wonderful talks we had last spring—of course there was no thought of my getting a divorce then! But just talking of the future, and of what I could do, he told me it was folly for me not to try at least for concert work, not to use the gift I have. Imagine it, Hilary! Paris for a few months every spring, to get frocks and hear the new music, and New York in winter. Wouldn't it be ideal? Wouldn't it make of my life just what we've always dreamed? And you'd be proud of me, Sis. You don't know how hard I'd work, how I'd practice! I'd have an apartment here, either the one he has now, or a larger one—he'd refuse ourselves to everyone—except now and then a really big affair, or something we couldn't refuse—and we'd become known as the professional husband and wife who lived a dignified, ideal life, instead of rushing about with the fastest set in the city—"

MURPHY'S COMEDIANS

"A Mad Honeymoon" may not offer any advice on matrimony, but it certainly affords a wonderful opportunity for those who want to laugh and don't dare, according to Manager J. A. Menard of Mahurin's Playhouse Central avenue and Stocker street tent theatre this clever play is being presented at 8 o'clock nightly.

When it played in New York, as a William A. Brady production, this farce-melodrama made a big hit. It is full of laughs and has as its thrill motif a coat containing $30,000 in bonds, that disappears and reappears with amazing complications.

"A Mad Honeymoon" will be relished by young and old, married and unmarried, all classes and kinds of people who still have left the saving grace of humor.

THE GATEWAY

Warner Baxter, who returns to Paramount in "The Female," starring Betty Compton, made his first motion picture appearance at the Paramount studio in Hollywood some years ago, with Ethel Clayton, in "Her Own Money."

Baxter had then appeared in only a few pictures, his experience consisting of some twelve years on the stage in stock and New York productions. He spent four years in the Morosco stage stock company, in Los Angeles, appearing in all the leading plays.

Later he became a leading man in motion pictures, and has a distinguished career and a large following among motion picture patrons.

Baxter was born in Columbus, Ohio, and was educated in the public and high schools there, and at the Ohio State university. His wife is Winifred Bryson, herself a well-known actress.

"The Female" shows at the Gateway theatre today and Saturday. Noah Beery, Dorothy Cummings and many others just as well known appear in the cast.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The wide hat of black felt is in vogue today. Its width is of the picture sort, but the lines and trimmings remain severe. A brooch or dagger of brilliants is the modish ornament.

OPALS ARE POPULAR

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Opals are coming more and more into vogue with the approach of October, the opal month. Some unusual combinations of opals with sapphires and platinum are shown by Fifth Avenue jewelers.

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE BAKED BEANS

Uncle Wiggily, the gentleman goat, pranced into the hollow stump bungalow of Uncle Wiggily one morning. The rabbit gentleman had just finished twinkling his pink nose, getting ready to go out and look for an adventure.

"Come along adventuring with me, Uncle Butter," invited the rabbit gentleman.

"Thank you. I shall be delighted," bleated Uncle Butter. "And will we build a campfire, Wig, and cook something to eat, as we used to do when we were boys together?"

"We can do that if you like, But," answered the rabbit. "You see he used to call Uncle Butter 'But' for short, and Uncle Butter called the bunny 'Wig.'"

"Could we bake some beans in a pot in the embers of a campfire?" went on Uncle Butter. "Seems to me nothing would taste as fine as baked beans. What do you say, Wig?"

"I say the same, But," answered the bunny. "We must speak to Nurse Jane about it. I don't know how to bake beans."

"I'll fix them for you, all ready to bake," said Nurse Jane. "But you two are very foolish to go off in the woods to bake beans. I can do it much better for you right here in the oven of my stove."

"Thank you, but we want to pretend we are camping out in the woods, Nurse Jane," bleated Uncle Butter. "It will remind us of when we were young."

"Very well," spoke the muskrat lady housekeeper. "I will put the beans soaking in water, and when they are soft I will put them in a brown, earthen pot, with some molasses and a piece of pork. Then all you will need to do will be to put the pot in the fire, and bake the beans."

So, a little later, Uncle Wiggily and Uncle Butter started off together with the pot of beans. They built a fire in the woods and sat down on a green, mossy log near the blaze.

"Ah, this is life!" sang Uncle Wiggily.

"The best fun I've had since I caught the measles and didn't have to go to school!" bleated Uncle Butter.

They put the pot of beans down in the hot ashes and embers of the fire, and waited for the baking to be finished. But, all of a sudden, while the two friends were sitting on the log, out of the bushes popped the bad, cross old Bear.

"Ah, ha!" growled the Bear. "I shall have four ears to nibble today—two of Uncle Wiggily's and two of Uncle Butter's!"

"How about nibbling some baked beans?" asked Uncle Wiggily, casual like and disinterested. "We have a pot of beans baking in the fire, Mr. Bear. If you will kindly help yourself you are welcome!"

"All right," growled the Bear. "I'll eat your beans and then I'll eat your ears."

The Bear took a stick to poke the pot of beans out of the fire, but, no sooner had he started to do this than—"Bang!" Something shot off like a gun. The Bear tumbled backward, turning a somersault, and a shower of beans and fire ashes were scattered all over Uncle Wiggily and Uncle Butter, but they weren't hurt.

"Goo! Goo! Who shot me?" howled the Bear as he limped and lumbered off into the woods. Uncle Wiggily and Uncle Butter looked at each other and then at the pot of beans.

Girl, Crippled for 17 Years, Learns to Walk

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Seven long months in the hospital and the reward—the ability to walk for the first time in seventeen years. That is the story of Anna Wolfe, nineteen, of Brooklyn, who now has the use of her legs as the result of two operations performed on them at the Long Island College hospital. Anna's case is a striking example of the miracles of modern surgery.

At the age of two Anna became a victim of infantile paralysis. Her legs gradually became misshapen and deformed, and she could not move either.

These deformities were corrected by the operations. Afterward plaster casts were applied and then braces. Then she began to learn to walk.

Remnants of Ancient Race Found on Island

HONOLULU, Sept. 19.—Skeletal remains discovered on the island of Nihoa, about 250 miles northwest of Honolulu, by members of the recent exploring expedition which went there aboard the U. S. S. Tangier, indicate that this island was once inhabited by a race of people bearing close resemblance to the ancient Hawaiians. Necker Island, 15 miles farther out, showed traces of ancient visitors, but nothing to indicate actual habitation.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The final meeting of the Knights of Columbus under the regime of Jesse Smith as grand knight, was held last night at the clubhouse at 330 East Lomita avenue. Routine business was transacted and plans made for the big benefit program at the clubhouse tomorrow night. Members and friends of the Holy Family Catholic parish are invited tomorrow night, when a Ford roadster will be awarded to the holder of the lucky ticket. A few more tickets are available at the clubhouse. Besides there will be a program, presented by E. J. Albright, the Sutton sisters, Harry James, Miss Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Girard and others.

ON VISIT IN CANADA

A brief description of Vancouver and the Stanley park in Canada, is given on a card received today from C. M. L. Nelson, Glendalian, who is en route to the Travelers' Insurance company's gathering in Quebec. He says, "We have been treated royally. Stanley park is composed of over 1000 acres, owned by the Canadian government for defense purposes only. It is leased to the city of Vancouver for a park. The natural beauty of ferns and other foliage, and huge fir trees give a setting seldom seen."

A moving picture theatre with a capacity of 2500 people, will be built in Guatemala City.

FLEAS ON FLYERS' PETS FLEE HYPO

Air Service Photographic Supplies Are Used on Soldiers' Dogs

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The mysterious disappearance of large quantities of hypo-photographic solution from the supplies of Photo Sections of the Army Air Service all over the country has at last been solved, and with the solution has come down the wrath of the Chief of Air Service.

The thefts first occurred in the Twenty-second Photo Section, at Kelly field, Texas, and it was not until a large opossum was found wallowing in a hypo pan, free from fleas and with its fur long and glossy, that the mystery leaked out. What was good for fleas on his pup, thought the supply sergeant, and soon it was found that hypo worked like magic on the fleas of canines without number at Kelly field and other air stations where the word was spread.

Accordingly an edict has gone out from General Patrick's office here that further bathing of dogs in hypo would constitute a court-martial offense.

PALM TREE ON FIRE

A blazing palm tree on the old Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital grounds on East Broadway at Jackson street brought out the Glendale fire department at 1 o'clock today. The blaze was promptly extinguished. No damage was done, reports Chief A. H. Lankford.

Europe Swept of Art By Americans, Claim

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The search for American art collectors has swept Europe clean of art objects, according to Charles H. Henschel, of New York, president of a well known gallery, on his recent return from a search for masterpieces in Europe.

He was able, however, to show invoices for articles valued at $1,000,000, including a painting, "The Fagot Gatherers," by Gainsborough. It was purchased from the estate of the late Lord Carnarvon, discoverer of the tomb of Tut-an-kh-Amen.

Gets $50 Debt After Waiting Fifty Years

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 19.—A check for $50 that was due him on a horse trade fifty years ago has been received by John Wesley Tully, of Tully.

The deal specified that if a mare, which was slightly lame, should recover, the purchaser was to send Tully an additional $50. The check was received from John D. Tompkins, of Valatie, purchaser of the animal, now a prosperous manufacturer, who states that the mare recovered.

DISCUSS BOND ISSUE

The entire list of bond issues to be voted on September 30 was discussed last night at a special meeting of the Greater Northwest Improvement Association, formerly the Fourth Street Improvement Association, at which J. H. Randall presided, and which was held in the Grand View school. R. Ernest Tucker, of the publicity committee working for the bonds, was the principal speaker, dealing with each proposed issue in detail, and discussing the civic center at considerable length.

He was also the father of the Texas league.

DAHLIA COST CUT BY PLANT WIZARD

Luther Burbank Announces New Flower to World; Expenses Lower

SANTA ROSA, Sept. 19.—Luther Burbank, who gilds the lily by showing Nature how to improve upon herself, has once more reduced the high cost of living—at least for people who plant dahlias.

Heretofore the bulbs necessary for a bed of dahlias have cost anything from a few dollars up. Hereafter, thanks to the new Burbank giant dahlia-flowering zinnia, just about the same effect can be produced for 15 cents.

The new zinnia, larger and more nearly perfect than any at present known to the world, was announced a few days ago by the Santa Rosa plant scientist. He has developed it in a multitude of shades, including crimson, pure white, yellow, old rose, salmon pink, white shaded with lemon, white shaded with orange, and half a dozen different bronzes.

The new flower has already created tremendous interest, Burbank said recently at his Santa Rosa home.

LUMBER CAMP ACTIVE

ST. PAUL, Sept. 19.—Resumption of activities in the lumber camps, return of railroad shops to normal operation and continued heavy demand for farm workers are major factors responsible for a marked stimulation of retail business. Industrial employment is on the increase.

NEW YORK CLOSING

By W. S. COUSINS
For International News Service.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Dullness and irregular price movements prevailed in the stock market today. With the exception of a small number of the specialty stocks, notably the tobacco company shares, the movement which has been under way since Wednesday morning seemed to have been halted, temporarily at least, as professional traders poured their stocks on the market. A sudden wave of selling around the noon period brought an abrupt reaction among the stocks which had been in the lead of the week's recovery and in which, therefore, a sizable paper profit had been built up. Sales today were 769,700 shares; bonds, $11,312,000.

CHICAGO WHEAT

By International News Service

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The grain market was irregular at the close today. Wheat finished 1/4c to 3/4c higher. Corn closed 3/4c to 1/2c off. Oats finished 1/4c off to 3/4c up.

GIRL SCOUT WORK PROVES BIG HELP

Life In Open Is Sounding Doom of Clinging Vine Type, Says Leader

BINGHAMTON, Sept. 19.—The heyday of the "clinging vine" is waning. The Girl Scout movement is crowding this type of attractive, but not too useful, young woman, into hopeless obscurity.

This solemn doom of frail "cosmetized" girlhood was sounded by Miss Henrietta Dickenson, of Binghamton, as sixty bronzed Broome county girls were folding their blankets to return home after two roofless weeks in windswept and rain-drenched open spaces.

The three-score Amazons, as they shouldered their packs for the homeward hike, seemed to echo the doom of the "clinging vine" and looked as if they would show no quarter if it ever came to an open battle with their weaker sisters.

Miss Dickenson is 21 years old and the youngest girl scout director in America.

DR. FISKE COMES HERE

Dr. E. L. Fiske of Fitchburg, Mass., has purchased a residence on Windsor road and has opened an office in the Lawson building, where he will practice medicine and surgery. Dr. Fiske is a graduate of the Harvard Medical School of Boston. After two years' hospital service in Boston, he went to Fitchburg, Mass., where he has practiced up to the present time. Dr. Fiske was associated with the Fitchburg City hospital for about twenty-five years and the organizer and physician-in-chief of the tuberculosis hospital for eight years. For eleven years he served as chairman of the board of health of Fitchburg and was surgeon of the Sixth Massachusetts regiment of National Guards. Dr. Fiske was on the exemption board of Fitchburg during the World war. He also held the position of jail physician for the county jail. Dr. Fiske is past commander of the Jerusalem Commandery, No. 19, Knights Templar of Massachusetts, a member of the Aleppo Shrine of Boston and of the Odd Fellows.

SCHOOL OF MISSIONS

Plans are well under way for the School of Missions which will open at the Congregational church on North Central avenue Sunday night, October 12, with Mrs. G. H. Schulte in charge. The meeting will be held for six consecutive Sundays, services being held preceding the usual Sunday evening service. The subject will be "China," several different books being included in the study. The School of Missions is held annually.

Cold cream soap is now made by machinery at the rate of a foot a second.

Hummingbirds' eggs are always found in pairs in number and are pure white.

PRACTICE GAMES FOR LOCAL SQUAD

Glendale High Grid Team
Meets Van Nuys Bunch
In Workout Today

By ROSS M. RUSSELL, JR.
Of The Evening News Staff.

With several practice games coming up in the near future, Coach Hayhurst, Glendale High school mentor, with the help of the two new football coaches, Hicks and Pierce, is getting the Dynamiters into shape. This afternoon the Glendale bunch journeys to Van Nuys for a practice game. The second practice game will be a strenuous one for the Dynamiters, as they find themselves up against the University of Southern California freshmen Saturday, September 27. The date has been changed from September 22. "Breezy" Elliot, star fullback on last year's Glendale eleven, and Drury, fullback for Long Beach last year, are with the Trojans. Peagreeners this season and this year should give the Dynamiters a line plenty to think about.

Meet Santa Barbara
On September 11 Glendale will play the Santa Barbara team at Santa Barbara. Last year the Dynamiters won 68 to 0, but this year, as their opponents have a stronger outfit, the locals do not expect such an easy victory. Hayhurst has been angling for Pasadena and Oxnard for practice games, but he is not yet certain that he can get either. He is holding the annual Armistice Day game open to Oxnard.

The Dynamiters are showing so much good material in the workouts that picking the team will be a job. Cecil Zaun will probably be back at center and Leslie Lavelle at right end. Carl Denney and Dixon Fannon are the two most promising candidates for left end.

Fight for Positions
Lewis Dotson, Marion Morrison, and "Droopy" Phillips are the three letter men who expect to make guard and tackle positions. Plenty of raw material is out to give the regulars a hard fight to keep their positions. Dick Ryan, this season's captain, will hold down right half, while "Bud" Elliot will bark out signals again this year. John Parker, Charles Lundey, Harry Fisher and Ellsworth De Paro have developed educated kicking toes and all are out for the fullback position. Elmer Muff and Dante La Franchi are striving for position as left halfbacks. Both are light, fast men. They graduated from last year's lightweight eleven.

FINANCIAL BRIEFS

By Southland News Service

A gasoline war among independents in New York has cut the price to 10 cents a gallon with the big companies maintaining a 13-cent rate. Wonder if the oil war song is "California, Here I Come"? Navy oil in tank car lots is selling at 7 cents, according to advices received by E. F. Hutton & Co.

Tire shipments exceeded production in August, as in June, according to reports from 80 per cent of the industry to the Rubber association. Only one and four-fifths months' supply of balloon tires is on hand. So look out for a price rise. The McGraw-Hill company declared an extra dividend of 13 per cent on common, in addition to its regular quarterly 3 per cent, both payable October 1. American Shipbuilding declared its regular quarterly dividend, payable November 1.

George M. LeCount, reporting to Hutton on Illinois and Indiana grain, says: "All the way down from Chicago the corn is below an average crop, even if it all could mature." Farmers are hoping for no frost until October 15, to see 60 per cent mature.

The head of the United Textile Workers of America has issued a warning of a possible early strike by its members. Amoskeag Mill employees yesterday rejected a proposal for a 20 per cent wage reduction, but voted to accept a 10 per cent cut.

A New York stock exchange seat sold yesterday for $83,000 and a cotton exchange membership went to Edward A. Pierce for $31,000.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—University of Southern California players went through a light workout today, the first hard practice being scheduled by Coach Elmer Henderson for tomorrow.

PORTLAND, Sept. 19.—Oregon and Michigan alumni were expected to learn about the Eugene varsity football outlook tonight at a smoker they are tendering Coach Joe Maddock, Michigan graduate, and his assistants at the University club here.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Sept. 19.—The Aggies are buying themselves with fathoming the complicated Notre Dame shift and interference taught by Coach Shisler, who is insisting on speed in getting the plays off.

SEATTLE, Sept. 19.—Washington's early training season was given a setback yesterday when Elmer Tesreau, hard-hitting fullback, was taken to the hospital suffering from tonsillitis and will not be able to report for a week or ten days. Abe Wilson, varsity halfback, is also on the Red Cross list.

RINGSIDE GOSSIP

By FAIR PLAY

Special Correspondent of The Evening News, Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—East-ern fight fans occasionally take time out to wonder about the Jimmy Duffy who has been going through the welterweights in the four-round affairs in California like the Broadway express through a tunnel. Few realize that they have probably seen him perform in the neck of the woods, for here the boxing authorities made him fight under his real name of Hymie Gold.

Jack Kearns brought him east about two years ago, but after two tryouts he was content to slip back to Oakland and box for smaller money, which proves the old adage about "what's in a name." Kearns got him a fight with Lew Tender, and Gold breezed along in front for the first four rounds. Then Lew socked him in the midsection with that long left uppercut and Hymie claimed a foul and refused to continue. Bobby Barrett of Philadelphia followed this up by dropping the Californian for the count in three rounds and Gold took the first train home.

In the four-round bouts in his own bailiwick, Gold apparently had everything. He beat Bernondsey Billy Wells twice, he trimmed Pinkie Mitchell soundly and won over the other easterners who tackled him, and some of them had class, like a tent.

Whether he loses confidence in the long bouts or whether he can't take it or whether he can take it and won't are questions which are causing a lot of comment on the coast. He has just had his tonsils removed and his friends say that this has made a new man of him. He now is talking of invading the east again. If, or when, he does it won't take long to answer these moot points.

ANDY SMITH HAS BIG TASK AHEAD

Anyway, Master Builder of Football Gets Plenty Of Raw Material

By S. M. HOLLAND
For International News Service.

BERKELEY, Sept. 19.—Andy Smith, California's master football builder, will have to do his stuff all over again this season if he expects to produce the Blue and Gold's fifth consecutive undefeated eleven. For Andy was left flat last May, when eight men of his winning 1923 team were gently led to the classic gates of California's campus, and there turned adrift into the world with nothing but a diploma to steer their course. And, incidentally, this just about wrecked Mr. Smith's football machine.

Eight Men Gone
The eight California veterans who graduated last May are "Hoggy" Evans, quarterback; Jack Witter, Andy's great fullback; Dick Dunn and Captain Don Nichols, halfbacks de luxe; Newmayer and Beam, tackles; Perry, guard, and Huffard, end. In other words, the Bears' entire line was passed out, and a goodly portion of the line went along with it.

However, while there's life there's hope, and there certainly seems to be plenty of life in the line of the 1924 varsity who are left to bear the brunt of the 1924 football assault against California. These four men, who will form the nucleus of Andy's team are Newell Mell, star end; Captain Edward (Babe) Horrell, center; Dana Carey, tackle, and James Dixon, halfback. All of these players won their letters last year.

Plenty of Talent
Furthermore, to make matters look a little shinier, Coach Andy has a mighty fair array of talent from which to pick the rest of his 1924 team. Among the prospects are: At fullback, Myron Brown, who is especially good at smashing the line; Earl Jabs, who will share the halfback contract with Jimmy Dixon; Glen (Scoop) Carlson, who will call signals. The four above-mentioned men will undoubtedly make up the 1924 backfield for the Blue and Gold.

Andy's 1924 line will probably look something like this:
Captain Babe Horrell at center, with Lewis and Rau on either side as guards.
Tackles: Dana Carey and Gordon White.
Ends: Snooky Mell and Frank Thatcher.

A look at this line will show that California will have three veterans in the line, and this is something not to be sniffed at. With Horrell, Carey and Tischer as a foundation, Coach Smith should have no trouble in filling up the gaps in the line in such a way that the 1924 Bears will present an impenetrable front to any and all opposition.

However, the question still remains: Can Andy Smith do it again this year?

Brooklyn Half Game Behind M'Graw Crew

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The National league race today was tighter than a Scotchman during a week, with Brooklyn one-half game behind the Giants and the Pirates two and a half games behind the champions, still in the race. The Dodgers began their last hard series of the season today, with Pittsburgh, while the Giants took on the Cubs.

The Yanks and Senators were still crowding each other in the upper berth in the American league today, with fireworks in sight as the champions came to grips with the Tigers. The Senators took on the Browns, whom they have found easy pickings all season.

The Reds threw a monkey-wrench into McGraw's machine by trimming the Giants, 5 to 3, but the champions came back and won the second game, 7 to 5, on Gowdy's single.

Brooklyn socked the Cards twice, 7 to 5 and 4 to 2, and crept up to within half a game of the White Sox's honor won the first game in the twelfth as Vance hung up his fifteenth straight victory.

The Pirates passed up a chance to climb by losing to the Phillies, 6 to 5, but stayed in the race by winning the nightcap in the ninth, 6 to 3.

The Yanks and Senators maintained their dizzy pace, both winning and remaining tied for the lead. The champions nosed out the Browns in the tenth, 2 to 1, conquering Wingerd, their south-paw jinx, after trying it up in the ninth on Bush's first home run of the season.

The Senators made it three straight over the Indians by a five-run rally in the ninth. Score: Washington 9, Cleveland 5. The Athletics made the Tigers look like circus pets by walloping them again, 5 to 3, sweeping the three-game series.

The White Sox drew further away from the dreaded cellar, trimming the Red Sox by a score of 7 to 3. Eddie Collins made five hits in as many times at bat. The Cubs and the Braves exchanged compliments, Chicago winning the first game in the eleventh, 4 to 3, while Boston came out of the ether in the second, 3 to 1.

Read Mrs. Hyland's interesting experience with WHOLE GRAIN WHEAT. Mrs. Hyland is a lady who dislikes publicity, but is very eager to help her fellow beings. She submits the following letter, asking that we publish it in the interest of humanity, and to also tell them that it will decrease their meat and grocery bills 25% to 50% when eaten as directed:

Los Angeles, Aug. 14, 1924.
California Food and Health Clinic,
Los Angeles, California,
Dear Sirs:

I have lived in Los Angeles for over thirty-five years, enjoying this glorious climate, but in March, 1922, I was taken with flu, which left my stomach and bowels badly affected.

After consulting fifteen of the best physicians in Los Angeles I still found myself not much better. I became so bad that a drink of water, hot or cold, or anything else taken into my stomach, would fill me with gas to such an extent as to cause a fainting spell.

I tried everything that I could learn about, but without results, and had almost given up when I learned at the Pure Food Show at Exposition Park last June of your Whole Grain Wheat. I bought some and to my surprise and relief, after eating it for two days as you directed, I ceased to develop gas in my stomach and my condition steadily improved until in a month I regained my health and felt as well as ever.

So I intend to eat Whole Grain Wheat, the perfect food, as long as I live. One does not grow tired of it and it does more for one's system than you claim.

Very truly yours,

NOT SO FAST

When driving up and down San Fernando Boulevard, don't drive at the rate of speed that you have for the last two years, but drive slowly so that you can see the amount of improvements, the new industrial buildings that have gone up in the last two years; look at the property which has doubled and tripled and doubled again in values in two short years.

Stop and think that you are passing by the fastest growing section in Glendale and the fastest growing place in America, where more dollars are spent for building per capita and population is increasing faster than any other place in America. Why go so fast that you will overlook these opportunities?

FLAMES DESTROY TWO-STORY HOME

Lack of Water Connection
Prevents Fire Department
From Saving Building

Fire early this morning completely destroyed the two-story frame house at the corner of Victory boulevard and Western avenue, in the recently annexed Lake area, and strict. The owner is E. J. Stanton of 114 South Orange street, and the occupant was Mrs. E. S. Connors. The value of the property is estimated by Chief A. H. Lankford of the Glendale fire department as approximately $5000.

Mrs. Connors came near being trapped in the burning house. Awakened by the crackling flames downstairs, she rushed to the door, when, on opening it, a blast of flame burst into her face. Taking the mattress from her bed, she flung it out the window to the pergola, jumped on it and made her way safely down over the front porch to the ground.

The alarm was turned in shortly before 2:30 o'clock this morning, and was answered by both the Glendale and the Burbank fire departments.

Though located almost on the bank of the Los Angeles river, there was no water available, and the firemen could do little to save the property. The fire burned until 5 o'clock before it was extinguished.

Previous to its consolidation with Glendale, this district was in the county, and consequently has no fire plugs, stated Chief Lankford. Had there been some means of hooking up with water, he declared, the property might easily have been saved.

Mrs. Connors, the occupant, attributes the origin of the fire to a defective wood stove.

Heavy Crops Reduce Price of Watermelons

early in the season, sold wholesale at $35 to $42.50 per ton, until the local crop from the San Fernando valley, that began coming in during August, broke the price, and now, with the farmers clearing off their land as the vines die and as the melons ripen, producers are selling as low, in some cases, as $15, with the average for prime melons around $18, according to A. N. Beman, manager of the fruit department of Ralphs Grocery, 201 West Broadway. Ralphs report heavy sales and a plentiful crop all season.

Up till the time the local crop began coming on the market the price of melons was around 2½ cents per pound, reports E. L. Young, manager of Chaffee's branch at 113 North Brand boulevard, but the generous crops, coupled with the present activity of the farmers in clearing their land are largely responsible for the present surplus that has sent the price down to one cent a pound.

"Wholesale prices are away down," says Louis Robman, of Sam Seelig's store at 135 North Brand boulevard, "due to a large local crop and the anxiety of the growers to get the last of their fruit to market. Sales have been heavy all season and this final rush will practically clean up all the San Fernando valley farms of marketable melons."

Many Visitors Attend Lodge Housewarming

dino. Ten candidates were initiated into the local lodge.

E. T. Lisle was honored guest, and during the latter part of the evening served as master of ceremonies. There was one visitor present from Oregon, and three past grand officers, from Iowa, Massachusetts and Nebraska.

With Mrs. Morrow serving as musician, the degree team of Sheiks from the Khalifah mosque, No. 5, Ancient Tribe of Sheiks of Los Angeles, was in charge of the impressive initiation. Following this the new members were greeted and then the members of the Glendale lodge sang a clever greeting song, words by Mrs. Morrow.

Talks were made by C. L. Sharon, grand foreman of the Massachusetts jurisdiction; Dr. J. Harvey Cleaver of Los Angeles; Mr. McMasters, district manager of San Bernardino; P. E. Beito, district manager of Bell; Mr. McConnell of San Bernardino; E. E. Barr of San Bernardino; Mr. and Mrs. Owen of Los Angeles.

A social hour and refreshments were final events of the gathering.

The Glendale lodge is to meet the third Thursday night of each month in the Legion hall. Those interested in joining are asked to call Mrs. Morrow at Glendale 1960-W.
